STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE:

Richard McLemore was the first white settler in this area of east-central Mississippi, his original land grant consisting of 2,000 acres between Meridian and Marion. This particular spot was a portion of the land McLemore acquired when his patent was signed by President Van Buren on January 5, 1841.

In addition to members of the McLemore family, victims of the yellow fever epidemic of 1878 and the Meridian riot of 1871 are reportedly buried here.

This cemetery is Meridian's earliest extant historic site, the burial place of Meridian's first white settler, Richard McLemore. It was originally located behind the first Baptist church in Lauderdale County, built by McLemore, a building no longer extant. During the Civil War the church was converted to an arsenal and later a hospital. McLemore Cemetery is currently classified as abandoned and is maintained by the county government.
